Management

I. Course Synopsis

Management is a 5 credit year long course that is designed for a student who wishes to pursue a career in business after high school. Students who take Management have most likely taken another business course prior to taking this course. The students in this course will most likely study Finance, Management, Accounting, Marketing or Entrepreneurship in college. The course is broken down into 4 areas which include Management and Leadership styles, Business Ownership, Personal Development and Career Exploration. Throughout the course, business concepts will be taught with an emphasis on enduring understandings, essential questions, real-world application, technology, and cross-curricular interaction.

II. Philosophy & Rationale

In today's global economy, students need to be lifelong learners who have the knowledge and skills to adapt to an evolving workplace and world. To address these demands, Standard 9, 21st Century Life and Careers, which includes the 12 Career Ready Practices, establishes clear guidelines for what students need to know and be able to do in order to be successful in their future careers and to achieve financial independence.

Mission: 21st century life and career skills enable students to make informed decisions that prepare them to engage as active citizens in a dynamic global society and to successfully meet the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century global workplace.

Vision: To integrate 21st Century life and career skills across the K-12 curriculum and in Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs to foster a population that:

- Continually self-reflects and seeks to improve the essential life and career practices that lead to success.
- Uses effective communication and collaboration skills and resources to interact with a global society.
- Is financially literate and financially responsible at home and in the broader community.
- Is knowledgeable about careers and can plan, execute, and alter career goals in response to changing societal and economic conditions.
- Seeks to attain skill and content mastery to achieve success in a chosen career path.

VII. Cross Curricular Aspects

- In unit 1, management students have the opportunity to collaborate with the Business of Sports and Entertainment class to organize and execute a fundraising event. Students will use the 5 functions of management(Planning, Organizing, Leading, Staffing and Controlling) to help build and put on this event. Students will decide upon a charity which the proceeds will go to, then create an idea to help raise money for that cause. This event will take place in the 2nd marking period allowing the students to properly plan and execute the event.
- During Unit 4, management students will have the opportunity to work with culinary arts students to help make recommendations on their “Dinner and a Movie” night. Management students will observe and help in putting on the event. Upon completion of the event management students will draft a survey for participants to fill out. Students will then collect the data and analyze it. Finally management students will create recommendations for culinary arts students to better their event.
- During Unit 6 students will begin to learn and work on resume and cover letter writing. One potential cross curricular activity is to work with some of the English classes to help identify different vocab words which will help in creating a stronger resume/cover letter. Management students will be able to have the English students look over both the resume and cover letter of each management student and provide them with feedback to help in creating a well built resume and cover letter.

- In Unit 7 students will have the opportunity to work with marketing students on interviewing skills, and ways to better market themselves during college/job interviews. Students will work together to come up with different ideas to answer questions when being asked by an interviewer. Students will also describe and put together a “DO” and “DO NOT” list for interviewees, as well as talk about proper attire to be worn during the interview.
- Senior citizens night dinner & a movie.
